With reference to your letter N^o. stated the 14th Instant, conveying the sanction of Government to the temporary retention of the Establishment of the recently abolished District and Sessions Court, Vandiddroog Division, pending definite proposals as to the strengthening of the Chief Court Establishment to cope with the increased work of the Court, I am directed to forward for the sanction of Government, the enclosed Proposition Statement, providing for the addition of 4 hands to the existing Staff.

2. The Establishment of the Chief Court, prior to the re-constitution of the District

District Court in September 1890, consisted of 1. Registrar, 1. Deputy Registrar, 7 Translators, 27 Clerks and 3 Mutchis. The Manual Establishment comprised 1. Jemadar, 3. Duffdars, 1. Dufferbund, 36 Prons (including Masalchis and Farashis), 1 Lascar and 1 Scavenger. The total cost per Mensem was Rs 2,472 (Government Proceedings No 4691-2, dated 22nd November 1885)

35

3. The strength of the present Establishment is 1. Registrar, 1. Deputy Registrar, 1. Assistant Registrar and Manager, 7. Translators, 20 Clerks, 3 Judges' Clerks, 1. Librarian, 2. Clerks for the Examination Branch, and 3 Mutchis. In the Manual Establishment, we have 1. Jemadar, 5. Duffdars, 34 Prons, 1 Dufferbund, 1 Lascar and 1 Scavenger. The cost at present is Rs 2684, showing an increase of only Rs 212 over that of the Establishment in 1890

4. The work of the Court has considerably increased in all branches since 1890 - The average number of Regular Appeals for disposal, prior to 1890, was 387, but it has now risen to 499-

Second

Second and Miscellaneous Appeals show an increase of nearly 24 per cent. - The number of Civil Petitions has nearly doubled, while Criminal Appeals have increased by 50 per cent and Calendars by about 120 per cent. - The increase of correspondence is also marked. The average number of "From" and "To" letters during 1886-90, when the Chief Court exercised Original jurisdiction was 10,899. The average for the past 5 years, notwithstanding the existence of the District Court, was 11,272.

5. The additional work likely to fall on the Chief Court, consequent on the abolition of the District and Sessions Court, may be fixed at 20 Original Suits and 50 to 60 Sessions Cases, besides a few miscellaneous and execution cases. If the Subordinate Judge of Bangalore is invested with jurisdiction up to Rs 10,000, the number of Suits may be about 12. There will however be a large addition of Correspondence work. The average number of letters in the District Court has been 6809

per

per year - This ~~work~~ will now have to be done in the Chief Court.

6. Considering the marked increase of work which will devolve upon the Court, I am instructed to write that 4 more hands are absolutely needed to cope with it.

7. The Clerical and Manual Establishment of the late District Court was as follows:—

1.	Sharisdar on Rs 100	—	125	× The present incumbent draws Rs 125-
1	Head Munshi	- - - - -	70
1	Deputy Munshi	- - - - -	50

Out of the Establishment of the Chief Court and District Court, such of the hands as have become eligible of pension will be retired, and others whose services will not be needed in the Chief Court will be provided for elsewhere.

8 The Mutchi, Dufferbund Lascar, 2 Masalchis and the Sweeper are not wanted, and their services will be dispensed with after giving them 3 months' notice under Article 287 of the Mysore Service Regulations. The Duffadar and 6 Peons whose services are required for the Acting Judge, will be retained till the return of the permanent Chief Judge, as the Manuals allowed for him are with him and are not available for the Acting Judge. In order to provide re-employment for the Manuals etc thrown out, the Presiding Officers of Subordinate Courts will be required to report to the Chief Court all vacancies in the Manual establishments of their Courts.

9- The permanent Establishment now proposed for the Chief Court involves an extra cost of only Rs 190 per annum, which, deducted from

6

R^o 538-8-^u, the cost of the late District Court Establishment, leaves a saving of R^o 348-8-^u to Government, without taking into account the pay of the District Judge.

I have the honor to be Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant,

Shyama Prasad
